

White horses, all representing the States of the Union, and all from the Keystone township! Then came wagons, carriages, and horsemen by thousands, with an almost endless variety of flags, banners and badges.

TWO THOUSAND LADIES OUT.—The Whigs of Fulton and Montgomery counties, N. Y., mustered at Johnstown on Friday to the number of 12,000, including 2,000 ladies! A car drawn by six greys brought 56 young ladies in white dresses, each bearing a banner, from Gloversville. In the Amsterdam delegation there was a car 30 feet long by 12 wide, in which were 26 ladies, robed in white, representing twenty-six States. After the convention had been organized in a grove, the approach of a procession of 500 ladies, with a band of music, from the village was announced. The brilliant company was received, of course, with enthusiastic cheers. The streets of the village were spanned with wreaths of evergreen, tastefully decorated with bouquets of flowers, and numerous flags streamed out from the tops of several lofty Ash Poles. On almost every house there was a placard bearing the inscription "Welcome Whigs," while in some instances large Latch Strings were hanging out.

WHIG MEETING IN LANCASTER, PA.—Arrangements are being made on an extensive scale for the Whig Mass Meeting to be held in Lancaster, Pa., on the 5th of September. There is every reason to believe that it will be one of the largest and most interesting political assemblages ever convened in the "old guard of the Keystone State." In addition to a number of the able men of their own State, the Committee of Arrangements announce that the Hon. John M. Clayton, of Delaware, and Reverdy Johnson, Esq., and the Hon. John P. Kennedy, of Baltimore, have positively promised to attend, and they also confidently expect that the Hon. Daniel Webster will be with them on that occasion.

WHIG MEETING IN YORK, PA.—The Whigs of York, Pa., announce a great Whig Mass Meeting to be held at that place on Friday, the 4th of October next. They extend a general invitation to the people of Pennsylvania, and say that "Baltimore and the invincible Maryland line are also invited to unite with their neighbors of York on the soil of the 'Keystone,' and consult together in the spirit of citizens of the same country—part and parcel of the sacred Union, established by a common ancestry." They add that "the Whigs of the Borough of York will be most happy to hail with a hearty welcome all their friends from abroad—the 'latch string shall hang out,' and the good old Tiptecan times shall come again."

The Portland Advertiser says that the anniversary of the introduction of Odd-Fellowship into Maine was celebrated on Saturday last with a splendor and costliness that has never been equalled by any pageant, on any occasion, in that State.

The Nashville Daily Gazette, (neutral,) estimates the crowd at the Whig Convention at thirty or thirty-five thousand. The same paper, estimated the Locofoco Convention at eighteen or twenty thousand. This shows the opinion of disinterested men as to the relative numerical strength of the two gatherings.

The passengers in the steamer Acadia on her last passage from Liverpool to Boston, have caused to be made an elegant silver tea service, which they intend to present to Capt. Harrison, as a token of their respect and esteem for him as a seaman and a gentleman.

A large Whig gathering took place on Monday, at Richfield Springs, Otsego co., N. Y. The venerable Judge AMBROSE SPENCER addressed the people for upwards of an hour, in a able, eloquent, and energetic manner.

FROM MEXICO.
By the schooner Rosetta, from Vera Cruz, we have received a file of papers from the city of Mexico, to the 3d August. We find little of importance. El Siglo Diez y Nueve, of the 1st, says that letters from Acapulco, received by the last mail, announce the settlement of a colony of Americans, consisting of six hundred persons, who have fixed their residence on the banks of the river Sacramento, with intent to usurp the lands of the Republic. The Commander in General has given notice of the facts to the Government, and asks for reinforcements to keep the colonists in check. These, adds the Journal, are perhaps the Americans of whom it was said, some time since, that they had presented themselves in a hostile manner on the frontiers of Upper California.

The same paper, of the 30th ult., gives a list of the various taxes imposed by the new law for the purpose of raising subsidies for the Texas campaign.—N. O. Bee.

Captain Babbidge, of the barque Hecla, arrived at New York on Friday morning from St. Kitts, reports that there was a very heavy hurricane; there were two British brigs in the port at the time, one of them parted both chains and put to sea, and arrived at St. Thomas, leaving her captain on shore; the other parted one chain cable, but brought up by the other anchor within cable length of the shore.

Two notorious English burglars, calling themselves Captain Smith and John Sullivan, charged with the robbery of the premises of Messrs. William Scott & Co., in New York, last week, have been arrested in that city. The stolen property, valued at from 5,000 to $6,000, has been recovered.

MAN'S chief and absorbing interest in life should be the health of his body. This every man of experience is compelled to acknowledge, however desirous he may be to lend his testimony to the fact of higher and holier objects, engrossing the attention of the mass.

The epitaphs of most men might read—"He was born; he toiled and worried for food, clothing and equiptage; he sought the phantom happiness; he died." It, then, mankind will still persist in attending chiefly to his bodily wants, all must admit that health should claim their first attention. To all true enquirers, therefore of the way to regain or preserve health, we would say, with candor, call at McGraw's, get some of the genuine Sands' Sarsaparilla, for sale by him, a truly celebrated and valuable medicine.—Mississippi Free Trader, Aug 14, 1844.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. Agents for Washington city:—ROBERT FARNHAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street.

LOCAL NEWS.

DROWNED.—The body of a young female was found in the canal near the foot of 10th street on yesterday afternoon, and it was recognised as that of a young girl (named Margaret —, about 15 years of age), raised in the family of Mr. James K. Plant, cabinet maker, of this city. She had left her house on the evening previous, without the knowledge of the family, and no knowledge of her further proceedings could be obtained. A coroner's inquest was held in view of the body, and an examination made by Dr. Joseph Burrows, but no marks of violence discovered. A verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts. No cause can be assigned for the rashness of the unfortunate girl—whose character was testified to by Mr. Plant as having been generally correct—though somewhat obstinate at times. Corporal punishment had been inflicted upon her some days previous, and it is supposed that this and a dissatisfaction at her situation, caused her to hurry herself into the presence of an all-seeing Providence.

COAL! COAL!! COAL!!!

THE SUBSCRIBERS have now on hand, and will continue to receive, a superior article of ANTHRACITE COAL from John L. Butler & Co. This coal is mined near Wilkesbarre, Pennsylvania, and is known in this city as the celebrated Butler Coal, which has been highly recommended by all who have used it, as will be seen by the highly respectable certificates annexed:

I used coal last winter, which I purchased of Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., and it gave entire satisfaction. W. W. SEATON.

PATENT OFFICE, May 31, 1844.

Gentlemen: The Coal that you furnished for the Patent Office during this last spring proved very excellent; and I used the same kind which was delivered at my house. It proved in both cases highly satisfactory. H. L. ELLSWORTH.

Messrs. J. PETTIBONE & Co., Washington.

OFFICE SECRETARY SENATE, June 1, 1844.

Messrs Pettibone & Co. furnished a small quantity of Coal for the furnaces of the north portion of the Capitol, and it was reported to be of a good quality. They also furnished at a reasonable price for my own private use, during the last winter, several tons of the same kind of Coal, and I was entirely satisfied with it, finding but little dust from its use, and but little ash remaining than ashes, there being scarcely any clinker left. W. HICKEY.

WASHINGTON, June 25th, 1844.

Gentlemen: Having used your Coal, I can cheerfully recommend it as being of superior quality for easy ignition and culinary purposes. Respectfully,
J. PETTIBONE & Co. WM. SKIRVING.

May 31, 1844.

I purchased Butler Coal from John Pettibone & Co. last fall and found it a very superior article. W. LENOX.

May 25, 1844.

I purchased last year, from Messrs. John Pettibone & Co., what he called the Butler Coal. I never used a finer article of fuel. When I can find the Butler Coal, I shall not inquire for any other kind, for I am persuaded there is none better. JAMES HOBAN.

DANVILLE, PENN. August 2, 1843.

I have bought of Messrs. Butler & Co. some hundred tons of their Anthracite Coal, and sold to persons for different uses, and used considerable of it myself. For burning in stoves and grates, I do pronounce it as good Coal as I ever have made use of; and every person to whom I have sold the Coal say they have never used anything they liked better. JOHN C. GRIER.

We can produce many other certificates in accordance with the above. J. PETTIBONE & Co.

N. B. Persons who want their Coal low, will please send in their orders immediately, as it will advance in price, owing to the great demand for manufacturing purposes. We can furnish at short notice any quantity of Hickory, Oak, and Pine Wood, at a small advance, for cash.

Orders received by William Harrover, Grate and Stove manufacturer, 7th street, and James Skirving, Stove and Grate manufacturer, 10th street, Washington city. Those who find it inconvenient to call in person, by sending their orders through the Post office will be punctually attended to, or at our office on 14th street, near the canal, by the subscribers.
